

Please remove your name after you find a team! Then, fill out the registration form found on the POC website!

Name	Looking for a team or looking for more members?	Email	Phone Pumber	Have you raced POCAR before?	Level of try? Racing to win (10)-Racing for fun (1)	Other comments (willing to race in the dark, how many more members you want, any other experience, level of experience, anything you want your team mates to know, etc)
	Looking for a team			No	6-7	looking forward to a fun challenge and to meet some new people
	Looking for a team			Yes	1	Purdue alumnus (Class of 2018, 27 y/o) up for walking around in a winter woods looking for markers. I love hiking and don't mind winter camping, and I've had a blast racing and volunteering at POCAR in the past. What a fun, ridiculous time. Currently based in Lexington, KY
	Looking for 2 more members to join Chelsea Maupin and I			no	1	Grad student @ Purdue (26 y/o) looking to enjoy hiking/winter camping/orienteering. Just looking to have a fun time. Volunteered last year and set points, only orienteering experience. Will want to sleep a reasonable amount lol.
	Looking for 2 more members			No	7	Definitely willing to race in the dark, but all in all we are looking to have a ton of fun and test our adventure racing abilities. First race for both of us. Need 2 members as of posting.
	Looking for a team to join			No	1	Im a Grad student at Purdue, and have never raced/ volunteered for POCAR before. I only have basic experience with orienteering (But I can find my way around a map and a compass lol). Fairly decent outdoor experience.
	Looking for a team			No	7-10	More than willing to race in the dark, and willing to put in anywhere from 7-10 level of effort. Never done orienteering or anything, but I'm in really good shape and will be backpacking in the Himalayas (Annapurna sanctuary) this winter and I'm more than willing to do lots of prep for the navigation /other necessary aspects of the event.
	Looking for a team to join			No	7-10	Decent experience with hiking and backpacking/ orienteering and off trail. Looking for people from Purdue.
	Looking			No	6-10	Totally ready to race in the dark, Never orienteered before, but I've got a good sense of direction so hopefully I'll learn fast. Done a bunch of backpacking and hiking across New Hampshire and Vermont, and I'm in good shape